

fldnt/fdnll-001.edzone.1/18/07

LINDA – Fieldnotes – January 18-24, 2007
Written January 24, 2007

Location: Telephone from my office
Time: Approx. 4pm
Trying to locate Dawn Arno

I looked up Dawn Arno's phone number on the EdZone website. Someone else answered and let me know that email would be a better way to reach Dr. Arno. Something in her voice suggested that Dr. Arno is hardly ever in the office.

05

02

x3858

[Sounds like heavy Asian accent, not sure from where]
TC Ed Zone?

Hello, may I speak with Dr. Arno?

She's not here.

Can I leave a message for her?

I'm not sure if she's going to be here.
Your best bet is to email her.

Can I get her email address?

arno@tc.edu

Thank you.

Dr. Arno and I then exchanged a series of emails to set up an appointment on Wednesday, January 24, at 1pm. Over the weekend we exchanged another series of emails to establish the place and to offer her information on the project. I sent the IRB proposal as she requested. On Tuesday night she confirmed our meeting, then cancelled Wednesday morning. She sent her last email Wednesday afternoon promising she would look into her schedule for the following week.